

WHO Drug Information

Contents

General Policy Issues

The benefits and risks of self-medication 1

Personal Perspectives

Tobacco product regulation: what can be achieved? 3

Reports on Individual Drugs

Spread of quinolone-resistant salmonella 7

Evidence for the role of zinc in childhood survival 8

Increased risk of gastrointestinal bleeding: SSRIs and NSAIDs 9

Clozapine and venous thromboembolism 9

ACE inhibitors improve cardiovascular outcome 10

Ticlopidine and thrombotic thrombocytopenic purpura 10

Miltefosine: effectiveness in visceral leishmaniasis explored 11

Current Topics

HIV treatment guidelines for adults and adolescents 12

Vaccines and Biomedicines

Immunization safety: a global priority 14

Cost-effectiveness of influenza vaccination in healthy infants 15

Diphtheria and tetanus vaccines: harmonization of testing in sight? 16

General Information

WHO Guidelines for the regulatory assessment of medicinal products for use in self-medication 18

Regulatory and Safety Matters

Troglitazone withdrawn 27

Cisapride and cardiac effects 27

Cisapride: changes to labelling 27

Cisapride: updated warning issued 27

St John's wort: recommendations for use 28

Northern hemisphere influenza vaccine 28

Nicotine replacement therapy 28

Anorectic agents: suspension of marketing authorization 29

Insulin cartridges: leakage risk 29

Zimox®: trade name duplication and risk of errors 29

Benzbromarone and hepatitis 29

Nevirapine: severe cutaneous reactions 29

FDA cannot regulate tobacco industry 30

New Internet website: information for consumers 30

Cyber warnings for drug sales via the Internet 30

Triax®: a harmful product sold on the Internet 30

Illegal products on the market 31

Epoetin alfa: inappropriate practices compromise product sterility 31

Propylene glycol and amprenavir 31

Trastuzumab: pulmonary reactions 31

ATC/DDD Classification

Temporary list 32

Final list 34

Recent Publications and Documents

International Travel and Health 37

WHO Expert Committee on Drug Dependence 37

Correct handling and distribution of propylene glycol 37

Reporting adverse drug reactions 38

Preparing core safety information 38

Good pharmaceutical procurement 38

Recommended International

Nonproprietary Names: List 43 39