

WHO Drug Information

Contents

General Policy Topics

Drug labelling ✓ 43

Reports on Individual Drugs

Malaria: a first stride towards effective vaccination? 45

Zidovudine and the natural history of HIV infection 47

Halofantrine in multidrug-resistant malaria 49

Poisoning with aconite alkaloids: an unwanted legacy of traditional medicine 51

Herbal slimming regimens and nephrotoxicity 52

General Information

HIV infection and drug-induced cutaneous reactions 54

Mucosal immunity re-evaluated: a new departure in vaccine development 55

Peptic ulcer: a definitive cure emerges 56

New threats from streptococci: the re-emergence of suppurative disease and rheumatic fever ... 60

... And the widening spectrum of group B streptococcal disease 62

Regulatory Matters

Reporting reactions to biotechnology products 64

Ketorolac: restrictions on parenteral dosage 64

Paroxetine: dystonia and withdrawal symptoms 64

Quinolone antibiotics: serious adverse reactions 65

Sotalol: approved for life-threatening arrhythmias 65

Stavudine: a new antiviral for HIV infection 65

Sulfasalazine: fatal blood dyscrasias 66

Sumatriptan: acute treatment of migraine 66

Halofantrine: revised data sheet 66

Essential Drugs

Guidelines for antimicrobial susceptibility testing (intermediate laboratories) ✓ 47158 68

Recent Publications

Pharmacists in Europe 79

Proposed International

Nonproprietary Names: List 69 81

